Fair Royalty Duties

Fulfillment of duties will be included in your overall score on a 1-10 scale.

- ❖ Be a good role model for the younger kids and help them in any way when needed.
- ❖ Meet with the Fair Board for introductions/interviews. TBD
- ❖ Meet with the Fair Manager throughout the summer to help in office/fairgrounds minimum of 8 hours leading up to fair week.
- ❖ Ride in the July 4th parade and Fair parade. You are responsible for setting up your vehicles/floats/decorating for each parade. The Fair office has royalty banners for floats.
- ❖ Do an article promoting the fair, ie contests, games, 4-H, FFA, whatever topic you would like addressed. These articles will be published on our webpage and social media outlets in the weeks prior to the fair. The articles need to be reviewed by the Fair Manager before submission. Articles must be turned into the fair office by TUESDAY, July 5th, 2024.
- ❖ Distribute and promote business window decorating applications. Royalty will go as a group and judge window displays prior to the fair to decide on winner. Monday, August 5th, 2024
- ❖ Help with Camp Clover, need to check with the Extension Office on duties. July 11th, 2024

Duties during fair

- ❖ Handout ribbons at the fair for 4-H, FFA and Open Class animals.
- ❖ Help in Fair Office at least once during fair week
- ❖ Help the Fair Superintendents and Fair Board members with games and contests throughout the fair. Please work these games into your schedule along with handing out ribbons.
- ❖ Applicants are responsible for decorating their own personal poster (11"x14") which will be hung in the annex of the Exhibit Hall. This promotes Fair Royalty. Due: Monday, August 5th, 2024
- ❖ The Fair Board supplies one t-shirt/polo shirt to promote the fair. Meet with the Fair Manager for sizes/color.
- ❖ The Fair Manager needs a good phone number/email where you can easily be reached.
